TRAILER -- Blood Fare

Real Queen of Horror

Welcome to the Real Queen of Horror DOT com, I am Zena.

Now that we have that behind us, let's get to some other stuff. First, I love movies. More specifically, I LOVE HORROR! If horror was a person, I would so be its friend. Whether I'm watching it or creating it, I must be surrounded by it. I understand the world behind a camera lens better than I understand the real world.

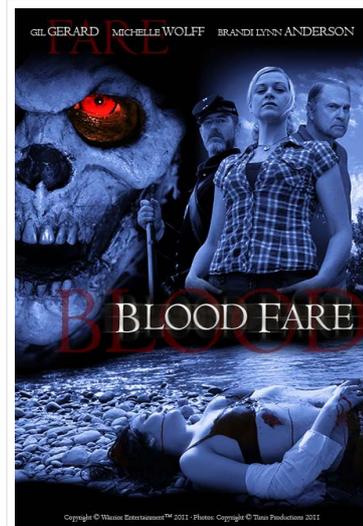

Basically horror movies has always been my love and always send me to a better place. So, I had no other choice but to become an independent filmmaker. That's why under my manicured brows, my eyes have matured in observing the beauty in everything, even in the most HIDEOUS. Dare to be different is what I believe. But daring to think different, others claim it yet I do it.

From birth I was raised to be loyal to my craft. My mother reared me from the womb on dairy and horror, both of which I still hold dear to my heart. And oh yeah, I plan on taking over the world with my films and screenplays!

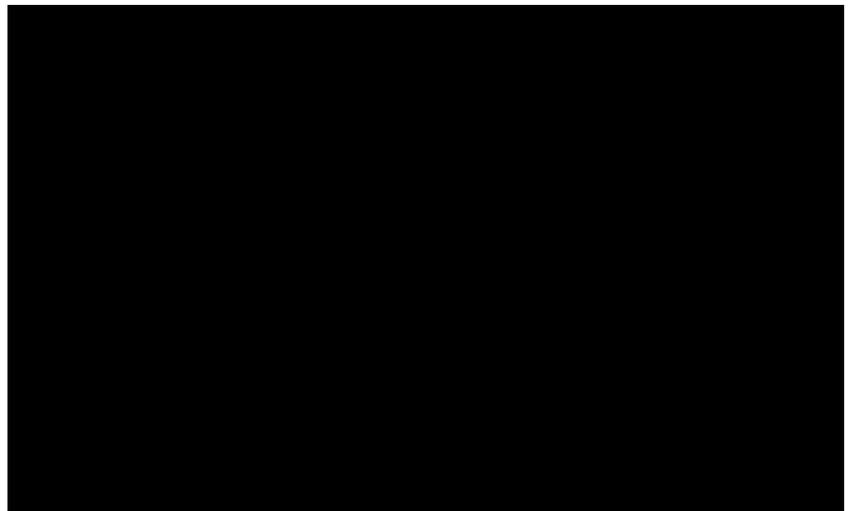

To all reading this, THANK YOU for finding me! I hope that we can all attain royalty in this kingdom called Horror.

Just thought I'd share some awesome news on a horror to look out for! Blood Fare is a Civil War ghost story with a modern twist by J.A. Steel (a female horror filmmaker!!!) and Co-Producer Christian K. Koch. Set in 1861, it's the tale of Corporal Henry Trout who fought valiantly in a forgotten skirmish after the first battle of Bull Run. Then, 150 years later, he comes face to face with his descendants as the battle for blood continues on a haunted battlefield. A woman named Tyler (Brandi Lynn Anderson from the upcoming Syfy original series "ZEROS") and her brother Chad (Adrian West) are Corporal Henry's fifth generation grandchildren. And they will challenge the legend, as the lines between the living and the dead become blurred.

The most recognized special makeup effects artists of Hollywood is Chris Hanson, who joined the crew for this film as Special Makeup Effects Supervisor. He already demonstrated his unique creativity in Hellboy, Underworld, The Faculty and many others! Also, the digital coloring was recently completed by Warner Bros. Motion Picture Imaging.

So yeah....support independent filmmakers to allow the WORLD to be more of a magical place! :)
