

INDIEFLIX SIGNS DENIZEN, A J.A. STEEL FILM, TO WORLDWIDE DISTRIBUTION

SALT LAKE CITY, (February 16, 2010) – Tunis Productions announced today, that IndieFlix signed worldwide distribution for the action feature film DENIZEN in Park City, UT during the Sundance Film Festival 2010. DENIZEN is the third feature of the award winning director, producer, writer and actress J.A. Steel.

IndieFlix acquired the non-exclusive right to distribute DENIZEN via DVD and the Internet. General release is scheduled for early spring 2010; and DENIZEN has already been selected for several 2010 film festivals including OutlantaCon (Atlanta, Georgia) and the Trash Film Festival (Varazdin, Croatia).

DENIZEN, starring Julie Lisandro (Cheerleader Massacre) and Glen Jensen (Fingerprints), is about a group of scientists, who have to stop a mysterious creature from attacking a small town. J.A. Steel combines A-list stunts and special effects with the independent B-Movie genre to bring a fun and engaging movie experience to sci-fi fans everywhere. The film spans the hemisphere from Muskogee, Oklahoma to Salt Lake City, Utah to Playa del Carmen in Mexico, with the stunts ranging from skydiving to cave diving, something rarely seen in an independent feature.

Steel brought back a tough motorcycle riding main character in form of Sierra Deacon as the DENIZEN protagonist. It is Deacon's team, consisting of the highly skilled scientists Dexter Maines (Ben Bayless) and Dallas Murphy (Jody Mullins), which has to support the locals, led by Callie Calhoun (Julie Lisandro), to save their town from the creature, who is killing the residents. After several deaths, a special Army Unit, led by General Jernigan (Glen Jensen), is called in to contain the creature, or if necessary, destroy the town. It is a race against time, to stop the creature and prevent the town from being destroyed.

The DENIZEN franchise includes a comic book coming in 2010.
